

Instructions for Postcards

The postcards should include quick, handwritten messages from members to fellow local Democrats. Be sure to include information regarding a local candidate's office, local Obama office, or information about your local DFA group to encourage people to volunteer and get involved locally.

When filling out postcards remember: write neatly, less is more, you can change your message or write the same over and over, it doesn't matter. Most importantly, fill in good local contact information (phone, website addresses, etc...) so people can get start getting involved right away!

Examples of handwritten messages to go on the postcards:

- We all need to come together and ensure that we don't have four more years of Bush-like policies from McCain. Please contact the local Obama campaign offices below to volunteer! Thanks, Bob from Boston
- Now that the Primary is over, let's move our country forward! To volunteer for (insert local campaign/candidate) see the information below. It is incredibly important to get involved locally. Thanks! Mary in Marysville
- Our local DFA group, Democracy for Burlington, will be working on a couple of incredible local campaigns and ensuring we defeat John McCain. Contact us at the information below and help us take our country back! Thanks! Pat in Burlington
- You have the power to bring about the change our country needs! DFA has many proven successes, so join us for victory in November! Thanks!
